Halli (Lycoris squamigera)

$30.00 per 100

Produces in early spring attractive green foliage which grows until July when it ripens and disappears. About a month later, as if by magic, the flower stalks spring from the ground to a height of 2 to 3 feet, developing an umbel of large, Lily-shaped flowers, 8 to 12 in number, of a delicate lilac-pink shade. The bulb is perfectly hardy. Cover crown about 4 inches.

RECOMMENDATIONS ON FORCING WEDGEWOOD IRIS

"If bulbs are to be precooled, use 6 weeks at 50 degrees. Plant IMMEDIATELY after removing from the precooling chamber, using deep flats (5-6") and good soil. Keep flats cool (48-52 degrees if possible) and moist until shoots are  $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches high and then force at the following night tempera-

9-10-not over 55 degrees F.

81/2-9-not over 52 degrees F.

8-9 -not over 48 degrees F.

"Lower both day and night temperatures during cloudy weather. Do not attempt to force bulbs harder to obtain earlier blooms than the size of the bulbs will stand."

Provide good aeration; keep soil moist at all times; avoid placing flats close to heating pipes; avoid dead air

NIPPON MUM New Introduction

Perpetual Blooming Chrysanthemums

$17.50 per 100 $150.00 per 1000

Has flowers of the Anemone type with about 50 broad petals in 3 rows, pure white, 3 inches across and is an upright grower. Where there are frosts during the winter months this variety cannot bloom in mid-winter, but starts to bloom in April at an average height of 15 inches or so. It continues to bloom until frost.

When it is grown for cut flowers it must be well fertilized and pulled up artificially by means of over-crowding or artificial lights thus it may be had with an 18-inch stem.

HEATING CABLE SETS

Gives You Better Germination—Faster Propagation—Healthier Plants Ready in Time for the Early Markets

Cable—For outdoor frames or greenhouses where heating cable is buried in the soil but the surrounding air is not heated by other means, approximately 10 watts per square foot of surface area is required.

In greenhouses etc. where the air as well as the soil is heated, approximately 5 watts per square foot has been found adequate. Heating cable is rated 6-2/3 Watts per lineal foot. It must be used in multiples of 60 ft.

60	ft.	cables	400	Watts	110	volts
120	ft.	cables	800	Watts	220	volts

Therefore a bed with soil heating only, with area of 160 square ft. should be heated as follows:

160 sq. ft. times 10 watts/sq. ft. $=$ 1600 watts
For 110 volts, use 4- 60 ft. lengths in parallel1600	watts
For 220 volts, use 2-120 ft. lengths in parallel	watts
For 440 volts, use 1-240 length	watts
110 volt Heating Cable— 60 feet$ 9.95
220 volt Heating Cable—120 feet 20.75

Thermostats

For small jobs using only one or two of the 110 volt cables, the light duty thermostat is most economical. Do not use on voltage greater than 110 or more than two 110 cable sets.

For larger jobs, the heavy duty thermostat with bulb set in soil and with box containing electrical mechanism remote; the connecting tube is 18" long. This thermostat can be used for maximum of six 110 volt cable sets or six 220 volt cable sets.

Cat.	No.	366X54—Light duty Thermostat$	7.50
Cat.	No.	366X54G1—Thermostat Assembly	8.95

Use the cable in hotbeds, solid frames or greenhouse benches.

Bring in your crops earlier with these Cable Sets than your competitor who does not utilize them.
